A DAY IN CROATIA:AN ERASMUS EXPERINCE

By Gheorghiță Bianca-Maria

A JOURNEY OF GROWTH,CULTURE AND LEARNING

- Erasmus gave me the opportunity to gain new knowledge, explore a different culture, and develop personal skills.
- It allowed me to meet new people, share ideas, and broaden my perspective.
- Each day was a new chance to learn, both inside and outside the classroom.

AN EARLY START TO AN INSPIRING DAY

- On April 10th, we started our day early.
- Breakfast was served until 9:30, so we made sure to be ready on time.
- By 10:00, we were at Adria School, where the teachers had prepared engaging activities for us.

DISCOVERING OURSELVES,ONE REFLECTION AT A TIME

- The first activity was a self-analysis exercise
- It helped us reflect on our personalities, strengths, and areas for improvement.
- We had time to think, write, and share our ideas.
- This activity encouraged self-discovery and greater self-awareness.

LEARNING IN A SAFE AND SUPPORTIVE ENVIRONMENT

- Teachers at Adria School had a very unique teaching style.
- They showed genuine care for their students and created a safe, supportive environment.
- Their approach made us feel listened to, comfortable, and motivated to participate.

UNDERSTANDING,PREVENTING AND TAKING A STAND

The main subject we focused on was bullying.

We learned about:

- How to recognize bullying.
- How to avoid it.
- How to stand up for others when they are victims.

This discussion was eye-opening and very important.

LEARNING THROUGH ACTION AND EMPATHY

- We participated in role plays to better understand bullying situations.
- Some acted as victims, others as supporters or bystanders.
- This interactive activity helped us practice standing up for victims in real-life situations.
- It was both engaging and educational.

LESSONS TO CARRY BEYOND ERASMUS

- The day was full of learning and self-reflection.
- We discovered more about ourselves and about how to support others.
- The activities gave us valuable life skills we can use beyond Erasmus.
- Overall, the 4th day was inspiring, meaningful, and unforgettable.
